The Spirit Behind Plumbing Furnishings - The Jennifer Ledger Collection

You know, I like to think of home as the place where we relax, curl into our favorite chair and take comfort in the people and things we cherish most. And that is the spirit behind the plumbing furnishings of the Jennifer Ledger Collection™. Inspired by the way I live at my home in Bernardsville, these pieces are designed to be more than just pretty look at, but easy to live with, too. So, put your feet up and settle in a while, be comfortable with worry-free plumbing furnishings of the Jennifer Ledger Collection. You are home now. A-1 Plumbing Supply Warehouse Stores is recognized as a leader in exceptionally crafted plumbing furnishings includes complete bathroom, spa, kitchen and occasional products, plus entertainment centers, corporate and institutional selections. Styling that endures but remains fresh. Pricing that puts high-quality products within reach. Features that fit our decorative plumbing furnishings to the way our customers live today. Those are the essential elements of good, affordable, smart design - and the principles that guide our work at A-1 Plumbing Supply Warehouse Stores. For decades A-1 Plumbing Supply Warehouse Stores, A1LY.com has defined American style and listened while customers shared their likes, dislikes, dreams and realities. There's just no other company more in tune with the needs and wants of today's consumers. So it comes as no surprise that the A-1 Plumbing Supply Warehouse Stores signature line of plumbing furnishings is so amazing. You can just tell that these thoughtfully designed pieces were created by people who listen and understand how plumbing is really used. More than just smart and functional, these plumbing furnishings have a style that is relevant, yet timeless. Naturally, when the experts at A-1 Plumbing Supply Warehouse Stores offer up design trends and decorating advice, people listen. For example, they recognize that designs with fewer square feet require flexible plumbing requirements. So they suggest maximizing small spaces with plumbing furnishings that can work great. And while a space may be small, it doesn't have to feel that way. High ceilings, creative plumbing furnishings with distinctive details can super-size a room's character. Thanks to help from years of consumer research, A-1 Plumbing Supply Warehouse Stores experts understand exactly how families live today. They know that the kitchen is no longer just for cooking, it is the hub of the family and the one space that can pull people together for real face-to-face interaction. This means everyday plumbing furnishings must be as comfortable to use as they are beautiful. Another insight from A-1 Plumbing Supply Warehouse Stores: nothing is hotter right now than outdoor rooms and indoor spaces that bring the outdoors in. Our customers share that they are co-opting porches, patios and backyards into sun-filled spaces that keep them close to nature. Meanwhile, outdoor spaces now rate the comfort and style of indoor living rooms and gourmet cooking areas. The A-1 Plumbing Supply Warehouse Stores key to creating these nature-based spaces is choosing multifunctional elements. Our A-1 Plumbing Supply Warehouse Stores customers love us some kind of way. Visit A-1 Plumbing Supply Warehouse Stores experience the Jennifer Ledger Collection Comfortable Plumbing Furnishings - With Love, Jennifer Ledger.
